Unless specifically stated in promotion literature, sports points do not have any cash value. After wagering, Members should always check their tickets to ensure their wager has been recorded. If the wager has been successfully recorded, the Member's account number will appear at the bottom of the ticket.
7. William Hill is not responsible for and will not credit or provide any reimbursement of sports points for any reason, including but not limited to, reader malfunctions or wagers made without following rule #6.

Any other privileges associated with membership will also be revoked without exception.
